Re: Trump v. Mazars USA, LLP, No. 19-5142

The House Committee on Oversight and Reform respectfully submits this response to President Trump's FRAP 28(j) letter, which asked this Court to remand to the district court in light of the Second Circuit's remand order in Trump v. Deutsche Bank, AG, No. 19-1540 (2d Cir.). This Court should decide this case and reject President Trump's invitation to remand.

Unlike Deutsche Bank, this case is fully briefed and was argued two months ago. Moreover, the Oversight Committee's subpoena in this case has not changed since this Court first upheld it. This case presents pure questions of law that are ready for decision and that this Court is well situated to resolve.

The Oversight Committee "fully intends to continue this investigation and ethics reform legislation in the next Congress." Supp. Br. 36 (quotation marks omitted). If this case has not been resolved before the end of this Congress, the Chairwoman will reissue the subpoena to Mazars at the start of the next Congress. It remains critically important that the Oversight Committee—and the House more broadly—be able to secure prompt subpoena enforcement without the risk that investigative subjects will thwart its efforts through litigation delay.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Douglas N. Letter
